DETAILED ACTION

General status

1. This is a First Action on the Merits. Claims 16 - 30 are pending in the case and are being examined.

Priority

2. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claim 16 –30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the elements. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted element is an outer actuator layer.

Claim 16 lines 11 - 14 recites "said outer elastic activation layer being deformable in response to pressure , in order for the activation layer to behave in the manner recited in the claim 16, it is necessary to provide the actuator layer by which the pressure could be applied to the activation layer, so the material of the activation layer moves to the central region. In absence of the actuator layer the material of the activation layer will not behave in the manner claimed.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claim 26 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Iwasa [US 5,152,392], Yamazaki et al. [US 6,344,623], Schmiz et al. [US 6,875,938], the Applicant also should consider these references in response to this office action. Should issue arise concerning the rejection presented above, these references may be relied upon in a subsequent action to support the lack of novelty or obviousness of claimed subject matter to one of ordinary skill in the art.
